Behold Long Clause.

Forged in the fires of NCI site visits, quenched in the blood, sweat & tears of rewrites; and almost as sharp as I am.

Bend the knee and submit an abstract before the deadline.

I command it, or DRACARYS!

When you play the GAME OF ABSTRACTS you win or you end up in poster session 2.

I have the Golden Touch.

Sadly it's my right hand. Long story, but... if you've got a flagon of dragon's blood chablis, I could be persuaded.
