Bench to Bedside to Bench Lecture Series

Tuesday, October 5, 2021 @ 11AM – NOON

Olufunmilayo I. Olopade, MD, FACP

Walter L. Palmer Distinguished Service Professor of Medicine
Human Genetics Director, Center for Clinical Cancer Genetics and Global Health, University of Chicago

“Black Lives Matter: Retooling Precision Oncology for True Equity of Cancer Care”

Dr. Olopade has championed throughout her career eliminating cancer disparities everywhere. In 1992, she founded the Comprehensive Cancer Risk and Prevention Clinic in Chicago, which serves as a critical resource for individuals at high risk for developing breast cancer. As a clinician who regularly treated patients with familial breast cancer, she proposed that both genetics and environmental or lifestyle factors can vary by race or ethnicity and affect breast cancer incidence.
