The Power of Persistence: Women Transforming Cancer Research and Care

This year marks the 20th anniversary of the Kaech lab and we are thrilled to celebrate all the accomplishments with past and current lab members as well as women’s critical role in driving advancements and innovation in the fight against cancer.

The symposium will celebrate International Women’s Day by highlighting special guests and long-time collaborators.

If you have any questions, please contact Salk Events at events@salk.edu.